Webinar on "Introduction to Securities Market"

In today's time, financial independence is no longer a choice, it has become a necessity! This is due to changing lifestyles, rising prices of commodities and the most important is owing to inflation. Financial stability in the long-run is critical. It is equally important for women to financially support the family.

Investments and return on investments (ROI) plays an important role to beat the inflation and financially support the family. To empower the women, the NSS unit of the institute organised a webinar on "Introduction to Securities Market" on the occasion of International Women's Day, 8th March, 2021 (Monday). A live webinar was conducted by Mr. Amit Gupta, SEBI Empaneled Security Market Trainer (Investor Protection and Education Fund of SEBI).

The webinar was intended to make the women aware about investment opportunities in securities market and give an insight on career prospects in securities market to achieve financial freedom and better ROI. The webinar was open to all and 128 participants took the benefit of the webinar.

What is Pledge?

➤ Pledge: Deposit of some personal property as collateral for a debt.

Investor wants to Borrow Funds to pay margin

He may pledge his owned securities (shares, bonds, etc.) to borrow funds.

Pledged securities act as collateral for the loan. Pledgee/ Creditor only has possession of pledged securities and not ownership/ title to the pledged securities.

If borrower of funds(pledger) defaults on repayment → lender of funds (pledgee) can sell the securities and recover his money

Securities are provisionally moved from pledger's/ debtor's securities account to pledgee's/ creditor's securities account.
