Report on "Reading Inspiration Day"

On the occasion of the Birth Anniversary of Dr. A. P. J. Abdul Kalam, the Institute observed Reading Inspiration Day on 15th October 2024 to promote a culture of reading and lifelong learning among students. The programme commenced with a tribute to Dr. Kalam, remembering his contributions as a scientist, visionary leader, and an ardent advocate of knowledge and education.

As part of the celebration, the Institute Library headed by Mr. Dipak Dahagaonkar, organized a Book Exhibition which was inaugurated by Institute Director, Dr. Bharat Kasar Sir. The Exhibition featured a diverse collection of academic books, reference materials, biographies, self-development literature, competitive examination guides, and inspirational works, drawing enthusiastic participation from students and faculty members.

A formal session was conducted during which students and faculty delivered thoughtful speeches emphasizing the vital role of books in enhancing critical thinking, creativity, ethical values, and overall personality development. The speakers highlighted how regular reading habits contribute to academic excellence, informed decision-making, and professional competence, aligning with Dr. Kalam's vision of empowering youth through education. The programme created awareness about the importance of utilizing library resources effectively and motivated participants to inculcate a sustained reading habit. The celebration concluded on an inspiring note, reaffirming the Institute's commitment to nurturing intellectual growth and holistic development among learners.
