Seminar on “Capital Market Awareness”

Financial freedom is a basic need of individuals and appropriate financial planning can help them achieve financial abundance as well. Maximum returns at minimum risk can be achieved through diversification in multiple investment avenues according to life goals and investment objectives. It requires learning the basics of money & finance, understanding risk - returns that can beat the inflation and fulfill wants with ever changing lifestyles and socio-economic scenarios.

For all round development of students and increasing their wealth creation potential, a seminar was conducted on “Capital Market Awareness” in association with Lotus Knowlwealth Pvt. Ltd under Investor Education Programme of Bombay Stock Exchange (BSE) on July 02, 2022. Eminent speaker Mr. Pankaj Mathkar gave an in-depth insight of the capital market operations, saving and investment, power of compounding, importance of personal financial planning, basic features of different asset classes along with related risks and returns.

The seminar started with the opening remarks of Director, Dr. Bharat Kasar. The expert speaker, Mr. Pankaj Mathkar, gave an in-depth insight that very well achieved the objectives of the seminar. The deliberation was followed by a ‘questions & answers’ session. The seminar was anchored by Ms. Shreya Devghan & Mr. Amol Mahajan, students of MBA II year.
